

ELECTION POLL AWARENESS CAMP-8th MAR 2024

The Election Commission of India conducted an Election Poll Awareness Campaign on March 8, 2024, targeting college students. Through mobile van presentations, interactive workshops, and social media engagement, the campaign aimed to raise awareness about voter registration, polling procedures, and the importance of democratic participation. The initiative successfully empowered students with knowledge and encouraged active engagement in the electoral process, reinforcing democratic values among the youth.
