

DEPARTMENT OF MANAGEMENT STUDIES

GUEST LECTURE (Virtual)

26-11-2021

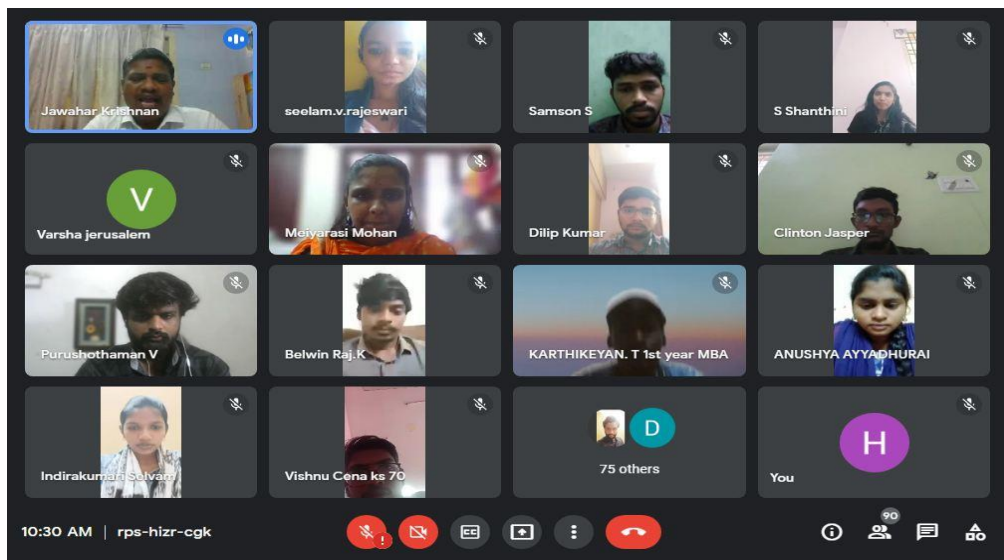

Department of Management Studies organised an Guest Lecture(Virtual), “ PUBLIC SPEAKING” on 26th November, 2021, presided over by Mr. Jawahar Krishnan, Management Consultant, Chennai, at 10.00 am.

Mr. Jawahar Krishnan is an energetic Engineer cum Management Professional having more than two decades of experience in diverse field like Building Construction, Building Automation, NGO, Temple Administration, Agriculture etc., connected with leading MNCs like Siemens and Served Public Sector Corporations like NLC, Indian Navy, Department of Atomic Energy and ISRO as a Service Provider and Consultant, Chennai delivered Guest Lecture (Virtual) to DoMS student s on PUBLIC SPEAKING.

The speaker begun with how to begin a lecture or a presentation. He insisted on the factors that are important to have a healthy public speaking skills. Establishing the eye contact in a gathering where more than hundred people are present is explained to the students. And also how to carry on the presentation and possible delivery of the content so that the audience are bound upon the speaker.

He also suggested the students, public speaking skills must begin in the classroom, with their peers who will support them irrespective of mistakes done in the presentation so that the confidence levels are boosted. And how to have an uninterrupted session, the level of voice modulation that will influence the audience.

The session ended with questioning by the students of I and II year MBA, who had doubts regarding a successful speaking skills and how it different from lecture.

